Jackie soared through Russia as a kid thanked her for another snow day. She was happy to have more believers as the girl waved back to her.

Soon, Jackie was lost in thought and found herself in the forest. As she was about to ask the wind to help her out the forest, a scratchy voice held her back.

"Wait, child."

Jackie looked around, seeing if any kids were around her, before seeing an elderly woman wrapped in a black clock in front of her. She screamed and fell on her bottom. The woman cackled as she dropped a black potion, hitting Jackie on her forehead.

She groaned, rubbing a now red spot on her pale forehead as she picked it up. It was black and bubbly. She shrugged as her hand picked it up. Jackie looked around, only to be a little confused on why she didn't see her.

Rubbing her head, she stuffed the potion in her jacket's pocket and sped up. Jackie had white, snow white hair in a braid, a deep blue shirt, baggy on the sleeves and stitched at the sides. She has brown leggings with swirls of dark brown at the torn bottom.

The auroras swirled the sky, indicating it was time for the monthly meeting. Feeling the potion wasn't harmful, she decided to play a prank. She didn't know her prank would cause her a lot of sacrifices.

2. Re - Make

Aiko: I kind of hate how this story is set up.

Andee: So we're making a new one.

Aiko: Same concept, and all that.

Andee: We should be making it right now.

Aiko: Some basic info is:

It's gonna be Jacklyn, Hicca, Merida, Rapunzel, Astro, Eugene, Anna and Elsa.

Astro is male Astrid because Hicca is a girl, not that we don't like yuri. We like genderbent couples too!

Everyone can see Jacklyn. She's known as Jokul Frosti or Old Woman Winter. The last one offends her a little.

They live in the same time period, just different places in the world.

All female Big Four.

Aiko: That should be it.

Andee: We'll add more info if needed.

Aiko: We don't see age as a matter, but when it does, we'll show it. **
